Inclusion and diversity

Auburn High School strives to provide a safe, inclusive, and supportive school environment which values the human rights of all students and staff.

Auburn High School is a zoned school catering for local families and international students. There is a wide range of cultural backgrounds represented, and a significant number of families who have recently moved to Australia. Our student body reflects the growing diversity of cultural, social and gender diversity in the general population.

Auburn High School is committed to creating a school community where all members of our school community are welcomed, accepted and treated equitably and with respect regardless of their backgrounds or personal attributes such as race, language, religious beliefs, gender identity, disability or sexual orientation so that they can participate, achieve and thrive at school.

Auburn High School acknowledges and celebrates the diversity of backgrounds and experiences in our school community and we will not tolerate behaviours, language or practices that label, stereotype or demean others. At Auburn High School we value the human rights of every student and we take our obligations under anti-discrimination laws and the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities seriously.

Auburn High School will:

- Actively nurture and promote a culture where everyone is treated with respect and dignity
- ensure that students are not discriminated against (directly or indirectly) and where necessary, are reasonably accommodated to participate in their education and school activities (eg camps, extracurricular programs, sport, concerts, social events, parent seminars, careers programs and community engagement) on the same basis as their peers
- acknowledge and respond to the diverse needs, identities and strengths of all students
- encourage empathy and fairness towards others
- challenge stereotypes that promote prejudicial and biased behaviours and practices
- contribute to positive learning, engagement and wellbeing outcomes for students
- respond to complaints and allegations appropriately and ensure that students are not victimised.

Examples of current programs: Time and Space parenting, Project Rockit, Money Talks, Rotary Club holiday programs, Swinburne University programs, VCE Hatch tutoring, School Sport Victoria representation.

This offering is designed to ensure that a student experience is balanced and extensive, and that no student is excluded due to disadvantage or personal circumstances.

Bullying, unlawful discrimination, harassment, vilification and other forms of inappropriate behaviour targeting individuals or groups because of their personal attributes will not be tolerated at Auburn High School. We will take appropriate measures, consistent with our Student Wellbeing and Engagement and Bullying policies to respond to students who demonstrate these behaviours at our school.

Students who may have experienced or witnessed this type of behaviour are encouraged to speak up and to let their teachers, parents or carers know about those behaviours to ensure that inappropriate behaviour can be addressed.

Students that are involved in bullying or harassing others on the basis of their personal attributes will be supported to understand the impact of their behaviour. The school has high expectations of behaviour and a code of conduct that sets consequences for breaches. Education is seen as a crucial part of the re-engagement of students and the restorative process.

Reasonable adjustments for students with disabilities

Auburn High School also understands that it has a legal obligation to make reasonable adjustments to accommodate students with disabilities. A reasonable adjustment is a measure or action taken to assist students with disabilities to participate in their education on the same basis as their peers. Reasonable adjustments will be made for students with disabilities in consultation with the student, their parents or carers, their teachers and if appropriate, their treating practitioners. Our school may consult through Student Support Group processes and in other less formal ways. For more information about support available for students with disabilities, and communicating with us in relation to a student's disability, please refer to our school's Student Wellbeing and Engagement policy or contact the Wellbeing Coordinator for further information.
